

Gulliver's Stories

Gulliver has many adventures on his travels. When he arrives in Brobdingnag he discovers that he is in the land of giants. Gulliver encounters many difficulties. It is very hard for the giants to hear what he saying and it is hard for Gulliver to use their large utensils for eating, he has to improvise and use items such as a thimble for a cup.

Pretend that, while you were sleeping you were magically shrunk to be 10cm tall. Write a short story about the adventures you have on the way to tell your parents' and explain how it feels when you return to your normal size.
